Give 1 Get 1

9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. (or until supplies run out)

Fitten Hall & East Community Housing Office

The Concept: It's simple-- we know that during high school you likely picked up a shirt or a pair of shorts or some other apparel while visiting other college campuses. Now that you are a Yellow Jacket we don't think you really need those anymore.

The Plan: We have launched this new initiative to immediately engage our first-year class in Tech's culture of sustainability. Bring a shirt or other piece of clothing from another college and we will give you a new Tech t-shirt. Then we will donate all contributed clothing to CHaRM (The Center for Hard to Recycle Materials), so they can help improve our environmental health.

The Purpose: Georgia Tech and the surrounding community is a living, learning, laboratory for sustainability, from our Game Day Recycling Program that minimizes the amount of waste sent to landfills during home football games to our Smart Energy Campus Program designed to reduce energy consumption and increase building operational effectiveness.

2017 College of Computing Boot Up

1:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Klaus Atrium

All Computer Science and Computational Media first-years are invited to join the College of Computing at our annual Boot-Up event on Friday, August 18th from 1pm-5pm in the Klaus Atrium. This event is a great opportunity to get to know other first-year CS and CM students in an entertaining, social environment.

This year, with the help of Atlanta Challenge, you will be participating in a fun and outrageous, high-energy, team-building game called the Amazing Worldwide Race. You'll be placed in teams based on your respective cohorts and work your way through location-themed challenges as quickly as you can. The winning team will get bragging rights, and all teams will win points towards the yearlong cohort competition.

Please note that there are a limited number of spaces available, so make sure to register by Friday, August 11th. Register at

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2017BootUpRegistration>

For any questions or concerns, please email Jennifer Whitlow, Director of Computing Enrollment at jwhitlow@cc.gatech.edu

We look forward to seeing all of you there!

Small Act, Big Impact Packaging Event

5:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Smithgall Student Services "Flag" Building Atrium

Throughout the summer, we are hosting a collection drive to benefit the Atlanta Mission. The project will culminate with an on-campus packaging event where the donated items will be assembled into critical need kits for delivery to the Atlanta Mission. We hope to see you there!

Visit engage.gatech.edu for more details.

First Friday

6:00 p.m. – 7:45 p.m.

Instructional Center Lawn

First Friday is an opportunity to connect with current FLOs (Freshmen Leadership Organizations) to learn about membership and the application process.

This block party style social event is a great way to learn about FLOs and other engagement opportunities at Tech while meeting other first-year students for King of Pops popsicles, drinks, music, and giveaways! Join us at 6 p.m. on the IC Lawn.

Sponsored by Student Alumni Association, Student Engagement, and the Freshmen Leadership Organization Advisory Board.

Game Night

9:00 PM - 11:30 PM

Baptist Collegiate Ministries at Georgia Tech (740 Techwood Dr. NW)

Come have some fun at the BCM with tons of Board Games, Ping Pong, Volley Ball and many other types of games! Whatever kind of games you like, there is sure to be something for you!

Sponsored by BCM at Georgia Tech

New Student Convocation

5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

McCamish Pavilion

Just as Commencement is a ceremony that marks the completion of study, New Student Convocation celebrates a student's entry into higher education. Initiated in 1994 and open to all incoming undergraduate (freshman and transfers) students, their parents, and family members, New Student Convocation serves as the Institute's official welcome to the campus community.

In addition, New Student Convocation will inspire our students to work to reach their highest potential while at Tech, acquaint new students with Georgia Tech's mission and traditions, and build camaraderie amongst the newest class of students.

Students and guests are asked to dress appropriately in smart casual attire; sneakers and workout attire are not recommended.

During this welcoming ceremony, all incoming students will receive their RAT cap, T-book, and GT pin. Parents and guests may also attend to celebrate their student's entry into Georgia Tech. No tickets are required to attend.

Students

First-year students will meet with their Freshman Experience (FE) peer leader in their residence hall and travel as a group. Transfer students and first-years who are not in the Freshman Experience program may take a chartered shuttle or walk to the venue. Please contact Institute Communications at 404.894.7613 with questions regarding student transportation.

Parents and Guests

- Guests attending New Student Convocation are encouraged to park in the E81 lot (Georgia Tech Hotel and Conference Center).
- Limited parking will be available in lot W23 (State Street lot) and ER51 (Peters Parking Deck).
- Only handicap guests with a current handicap parking tag will be permitted to park in the E65 lot behind McCamish Pavilion.

Sponsored by *Special Events and Protocol*

Rock, Ramble, Roll

Immediately following Convocation

Student Center

Students will attend a special welcome party sponsored by Auxiliary Services - Rock, Ramble, and Roll - which celebrates their first night as a Georgia Tech college student.

Held in the Student Center, students may take a shuttle or walk over after the Convocation ceremony. This is a free event for new students.

ECLIPSE 2017 @ GEORGIA TECH

1 pm - 4 pm

Kessler Campanile

A special treat awaits students returning to campus for the 2017 Fall Semester on the first day of class: a midafternoon solar eclipse. On Aug. 21, 2017, a total solar eclipse will be visible across the U.S. Atlanta will experience a 97% totality; at around 2:30 PM, we will see the moon cover about 97% of the sun's disk. Weather permitting, we will experience darkening of the skies and lowering of temperature. The College of Sciences and the Office of Undergraduate Education invite the Georgia Tech community to join in eclipse-related activities by the Kessler Campanile. New students will receive eclipse-viewing glasses on Convocation Day, Aug. 20. Eclipse-viewing glasses will be distributed around campus at noon on Aug. 21. Livestreaming of the eclipse from the Georgia Tech Observatory and other fun activities will be held at 1-4 pm by the Kessler campanile. Rain venue is Clough Undergraduate Learning Commons.
