Richie Cavalera [vocals], Gene Macazan [guitar], Luis Marrufo [bass], and Zak [drums]—upped the ante tenfold this time around, honing their patented sound into a tremendously tighter and tougher monster. Featuring production by Logan Mader [Gojira, DevilDriver, Five Finger Death Punch], the record explodes right out of the gate with vicious riffing, intricate leads, and unforgettable hooks.

When the album hits stores, this War gets underway with a bang...

“...is full of mean riffing and serious aggression.”

– Revolver Magazine

“Ploughing forward with adrenalin-soaked swagger and playing the groove-metal card once again...”

– Terrozer Magazine

"Easily one of the best thrash albums I've listened to in a while. They get 5/5 skulls!" – Rock Revolt Magazine

“All Out War has all the makings of a modern metal masterpiece. 10/10” – Planet Mosh
