At Chicago Hot Yoga, on Damen and Argyle, steps from beautiful Winnemac Park, students are the heroes. They may arrive seeking a workout, but they discover a clearer mind, emotional well-being, and the ability to be fully present. As stress dissolves, healing begins naturally. Their practice celebrates inclusivity, inviting everyone to explore their potential with joy. Fun and truly transformative, every student's journey becomes an inspiring story—and it's never too late to begin now.

WELCOME

välkommen

Andersonville is a living example of Chicago's entrepreneurial spirit. Independent businesses line our streets, offering everything from handmade goods to specialty foods to essential services and neighborhood gathering places. Your support reaches far beyond the storefront. It directly impacts the people who pour their creativity, time, and care into making this district feel like home.

Being known as the "Shop Local Capital of Chicago" is not just about having one of the highest concentrations of locally owned businesses. It is about the passionate business owners and families who welcome you every day. Step inside an Andersonville shop and you might be greeted by a friendly hello, spot the owner restocking shelves, or watch someone preparing a recipe perfected over generations. When you shop, dine, and explore locally, you are not just visiting a neighborhood. You are becoming part of a community that leads with inclusiveness, creativity, and care for one another.

Välkommen till Andersonville!

MIDSOMMARFEST

Summer Starts Here
June 12-14

Each June, Andersonville Midsommarfest invites you to gather along Clark Street as the neighborhood comes alive in celebration. Rooted in the Swedish tradition of welcoming the longest day of the year, Midsommarfest recognizes and uplifts the makers of music, the makers of craft, and the makers of community.

In 2026, Midsommarfest celebrates 60 years of bringing people together in Andersonville. For six decades, this festival has reflected the neighborhood's welcoming spirit and its commitment to inclusivity, creativity, and connection. It is a place where the LGBTQIA2S+ community is celebrated, where everyone is invited to show up as they are, and where joy is something we share together.

Beyond being a beloved summer tradition, Midsommarfest is also an important fundraising tool. Revenue generated supports the Andersonville Chamber of Commerce's year-round programming and provides financial support to more than a dozen local nonprofits each year.

Come wander, listen, eat, dance, and stay awhile. Summer starts here.

See you at Midsommarfest,
June 12-14, 2026!

ALWAYS ANDERSONVILLE: THE PODCAST

Welcome to Always Andersonville, the podcast that transforms the businesses of our neighborhood into a collection of stories. Behind every storefront is a person: a visionary, a risk-taker, an activist, a creative, a leader. The podcast introduces listeners to the faces behind the businesses, revealing the dreams that led them to put down roots in Andersonville and the reasons they keep going. Always Andersonville is more than a podcast; it's a bridge that connects neighbors. By featuring the businesses that define the district, the podcast encourages residents to support local, and fosters a sense of community and shared responsibility for the well-being of the neighborhood.

THE GOOD ONE

eatthegoodone.com

@eatthegoodone

The Good One began as Brandon Mensing's love letter to Andersonville, the neighborhood that showed him how good "shop local" can taste. Brandon perfected custom doughs, handmade and fried to order, with flavors built from real ingredients like brown butter, dutch cocoa, peanuts, strawberries, and honey. Born out of a summer of fried-to-order pop-ups, every part of The Good One was designed to evoke favorite flavors, spark a little joy, and become the donut shop Andersonville deserves. Now on hiatus, Brandon hopes to bring The Good One to a permanent home in the neighborhood soon.

NOBODY'S DARLING

 @nobodysdarlingbar

At 1744–1746 West Balmoral sits Nobody's Darling, a women-centric elevated cocktail bar in the heart of Andersonville where women come first, but everyone is welcomed, respected, and made to feel safe. Conceptualized and opened by Renauda Riddle and Angela Barnes in May 2021 as COVID was receding, the James Beard finalist for Outstanding Bar is serious about offering craft cocktails, thoughtfully curated menus, and building partnerships with BIPOC liquor purveyors. They present programming that includes popular queer themed events, BIPOC trivia evenings and more. Renauda and Angela each draw upon their non-hospitality industry backgrounds (finance and law) to round out their bar venture.

Nobody's Darling has been a media darling since opening - named Best New Bar in 2021 by the Chicago Reader and featured on local and national news, as well as in the Washington Post, the Chicago Tribune, Eater, Block Club Chicago, Punch Drink, Chicago Reader, THEM., The World's 50 Best Restaurants, Afar Magazine, and Imbibe.

Ninety-four years in business—same name, same location. Honoring Andersonville's Scandinavian roots, Svea is one of the few remaining places for Swedish dining in this northside enclave and is beloved by all! Home of the VIKING BREAKFAST, this old-school diner, open for breakfast and lunch Wednesday through Sunday, features a sprawling menu of Swedish comfort food, from thin pancakes draped in lingonberries to savory Swedish sausages, meatballs, open-faced sandwiches on limpa bread, and more!

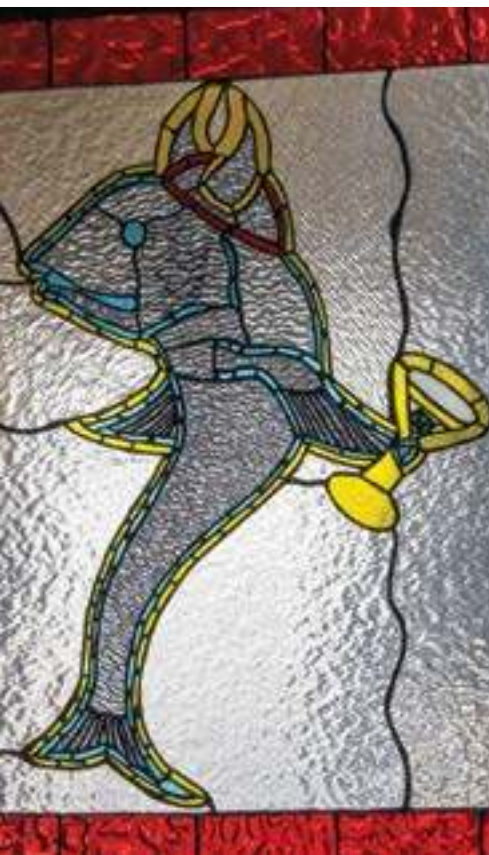

SIMONS TAVERN

5210 North Clark

@simonstavern

Simon's Tavern has been an anchor of the Clark Street business district since it opened in 1934. Owner Scott Martin, who took over in 1994, has been a lifelong member of the Andersonville community. When you walk into Simon's, you are not only walking toward a great drink, but you are walking into history! This former speakeasy is a neighborhood favorite, known for its Chicago and Swedish roots, famous celebrations, community presence, and Glögg (hot or frozen, depending on the season). The award-winning jukebox and conversation are always flowing, as are the drinks. Look for the iconic neon-illuminated, soon-to-be-pickled herring hanging above the door.

MAISON WINONA
1218 West Winona

@maison_winona

Bienvenue à Maison Winona, Andersonville's boutique vacation rental. This 1908 landmark was designed by Chicago architect Frederick Schock, a contemporary of Louis Sullivan and Frank Lloyd Wright. Built for the Budlong Pickle family, the historic home features a Beaux-Arts exterior and a Prairie School interior. The maximalist décor showcases William Morris florals, jewel-tone velvets, and Art Nouveau accents layered with elegance and a whisper of ooh là là. Perfect for friends & families seeking a one-of-a-kind Chicago stay.

"We were completely blown away by this space! Every detail and bit of decor is just so cool, and the balcony was so enjoyable for morning coffee on a sunny late summer weekend. The place was immaculately clean. It was so comfortable from the beds to the hanging out spaces, we just didn't want to leave! Everything you could think of needing, the hosts already thought of and made available for you to feel at home and welcome. This is THE place to stay in Chicago!"

ANDERSONVILLE SPECIAL SERVICE AREA #22

Photos by Kayla Young

Special Service Areas (SSAs) empower local communities to address specific needs, foster economic growth, and create vibrant, thriving districts. The Andersonville SSA #22 is a funding tool used by the Andersonville community to maintain a clean, attractive, and competitive commercial district.

The funding comes from a tax levy on each commercial property within the SSA perimeter. The SSA is managed by the “sole service provider” chosen by the SSA commission: The Andersonville Chamber of Commerce.

In 2025, Chicago-based artist Gabi Bozeman brought fresh creativity to the streets of Andersonville, transforming ordinary electric utility boxes into vibrant public art. Her series of painted and wrapped boxes along Clark Street transforms everyday infrastructure into a free, walkable art experience, offering moments of pause where color and emotion invite reflection and connection, not only within the neighborhood, but between people as shared human experience. Gabi’s work, commissioned by SSA #22 adds visual joy to the neighborhood, inviting residents and visitors alike to see familiar streets in a new way while highlighting the power of public art to brighten urban spaces.

THE COMMISSION

SSA #22 is overseen by a group of five volunteer Commissioners. The commissioners are appointed by the Mayor of the City of Chicago and approved by the City Council. Our mission is to sustain and promote the prosperity and unique quality of life of the Andersonville neighborhood and the commercial district.

Interested in becoming a commissioner? To become an SSA commissioner, you must be a property owner within the SSA boundaries. Vacancies on the commission are filled by an application process. Please reach out to ssa22@andersonville.org for more information.

The boundaries of SSA #22 are Clark Street from Ainslie to Victoria and adjoining side streets up to the alleys, plus the south sides of Balmoral and Foster from the west alley to Ashland.

ARTIST STATEMENT

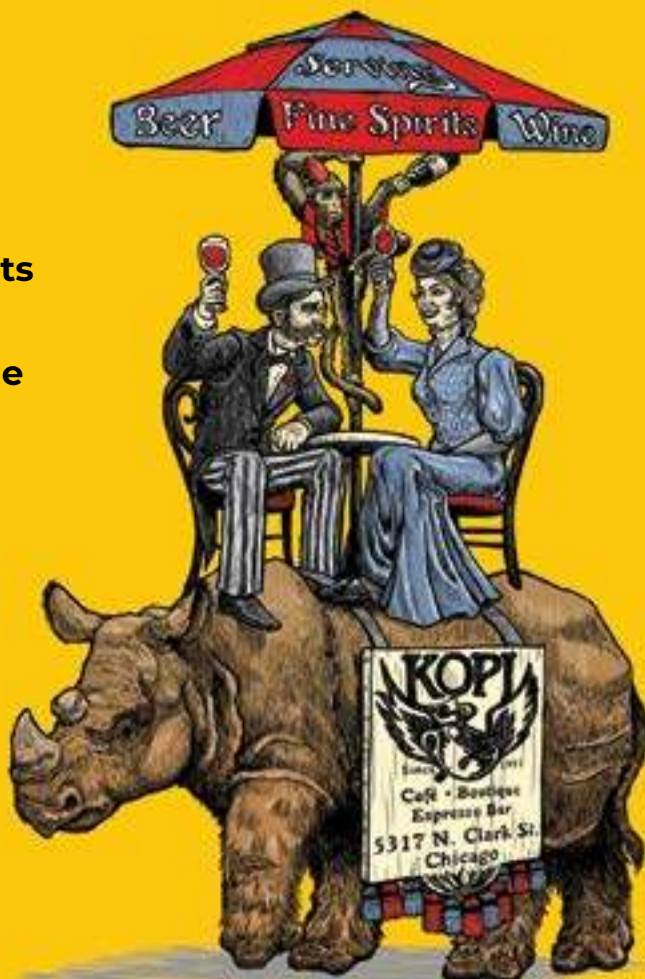

@gabibozeman

“This project has been a pivotal part of my growth as an artist. Through it, I’ve learned so much about myself, as a Chicagoan, a neighbor, and as a friend. Chicago is one of the greatest cities in the world, not only because of its support for creativity, but because of the care we show one another. Andersonville and its residents embodied that spirit at every step, welcoming both me and this project with curiosity, kindness and generosity. I’m incredibly grateful for the connections formed and the sense of belonging this experience created.”
